

COM Program – Alma Chairs

The Current Luxury COM program provides customers a structured opportunity to supply their own fabrics to be custom upholstered by our internal craftsman on Alma chairs.

Please review the terms and conditions below.

- Approval Process: Material must be approved by the manufacturer prior to production.
- Yardage Requirements: Yardage requirements vary based on fabric direction, size and geometry of the product. Specific yardage requirements will be conveyed upon approval of the sample.
- Fabric Guidelines: Customers are responsible for shipping the fabric to the manufacturer, at the conclusion of the project, any and all fabric waste will be disposed.
- Risk of Damage: The manufacturer will not be liable for damage caused by hidden structural issues, dry rot, fragile material or non-standard construction.
- Customer Ownership & Responsibility: All items provided under this program remain the property of the customer at all times, the customer represents that they are the legal owner of the product being submitted and have the right to authorize work.
- Warranty: Current Luxury cannot provide a warranty on COM fabrics, but the standard warranty applies to all other components of the chair.
- Lead Time: COM fabrics will add up to 14 working days to manufacturer lead times.

Please contact us directly for any questions or concerns.